

For 17+ years Successful Recovery Solutions has worked closely with many substance abuse treatment centers around the country referring clients for substance abuse treatment. We have found that the proper placement of a client and your particular needs plays a crucial role in your overall success during your treatment stay and ongoing recovery. Read more: this program was designed to take the guess work out of choosing a treatment program to attend. We understand how confusing and anxiety ridden trying to find the right treatment program can be. Why not have a certified addiction specialist collect all the relevant information through an extensive phone screening and assessment consultation to determine what treatment program best suits your particular needs. We then help, support, and guide you throughout the process of entering the proper treatment program for you individual needs. The decision of which treatment program is right for you is one of the most important choices and decisions one can make in life. Let Successful Recovery Solutions help you make the right decision with choosing a substance abuse treatment program that best suits your personal needs... We find great joy and satisfaction in finding the right treatment program for our client's individual personalities and needs and being able to watch them grow in your recovery, self-esteem, and overall happiness. In many cases we continue the relationship with your enrollment in our aftercare coaching program upon completion of your inpatient treatment program and return home. Call us today for your free initial phone consultation to learn more about our referral program and how to get started with choosing the right treatment program to enhance the successful outcome you or your loved deserves. 1-888-557-0002.